

Meet Graham

about Graham

'I'm not a stranger to the dark, hide away, they say they don't want to see the sum of my broken parts.'

"What this means to me is being segregated and not heard.

How I broke out of this situation was to be involved with Loud and Clear, a self advocacy group at the Sunshine Coast.

Also I am an actor, dancer and visual artist. This has helped me not only have a voice but also to be heard and help others be heard as well.

After a couple of years I nominated myself to be Inclusion Australia's Our Voice Qld rep and got the job. Also I joined the Spiral Committee and was chosen to be involved with 'Self Advocates working party'(SAQ).

This has enabled me to learn about self advocacy, how to be heard better myself, and also how to listen more to others. This is important as everyone has a right to a voice.

I have attended many conferences around Australia performing, and giving presentations.

I hope to go to lots more in the future as then my dreams will come true. Self Advocacy is my passion.

This is who I am. THIS IS ME!"

Voices Together | Australian Self Advocacy

Empowering potential and equality for people with disabilities

Inclusion Australia
acting locally - representing nationally - connecting globally