

Family Blood Lines

My art has provided me the opportunity to build relationships with other artist and take on the role as an Elder around disability business. Working on a number of community art projects has allowed us the platform to advocate on the cultural contributions people with disability can make in community.

Aunty Robyn Lennox
Kalkadoon

Australian Self Advocacy Project

Created in partnership with Saru, First Peoples Disability Network (Australia) and NuunaRon Art Group | www.fpdn.org.au

